Wo bin ich?

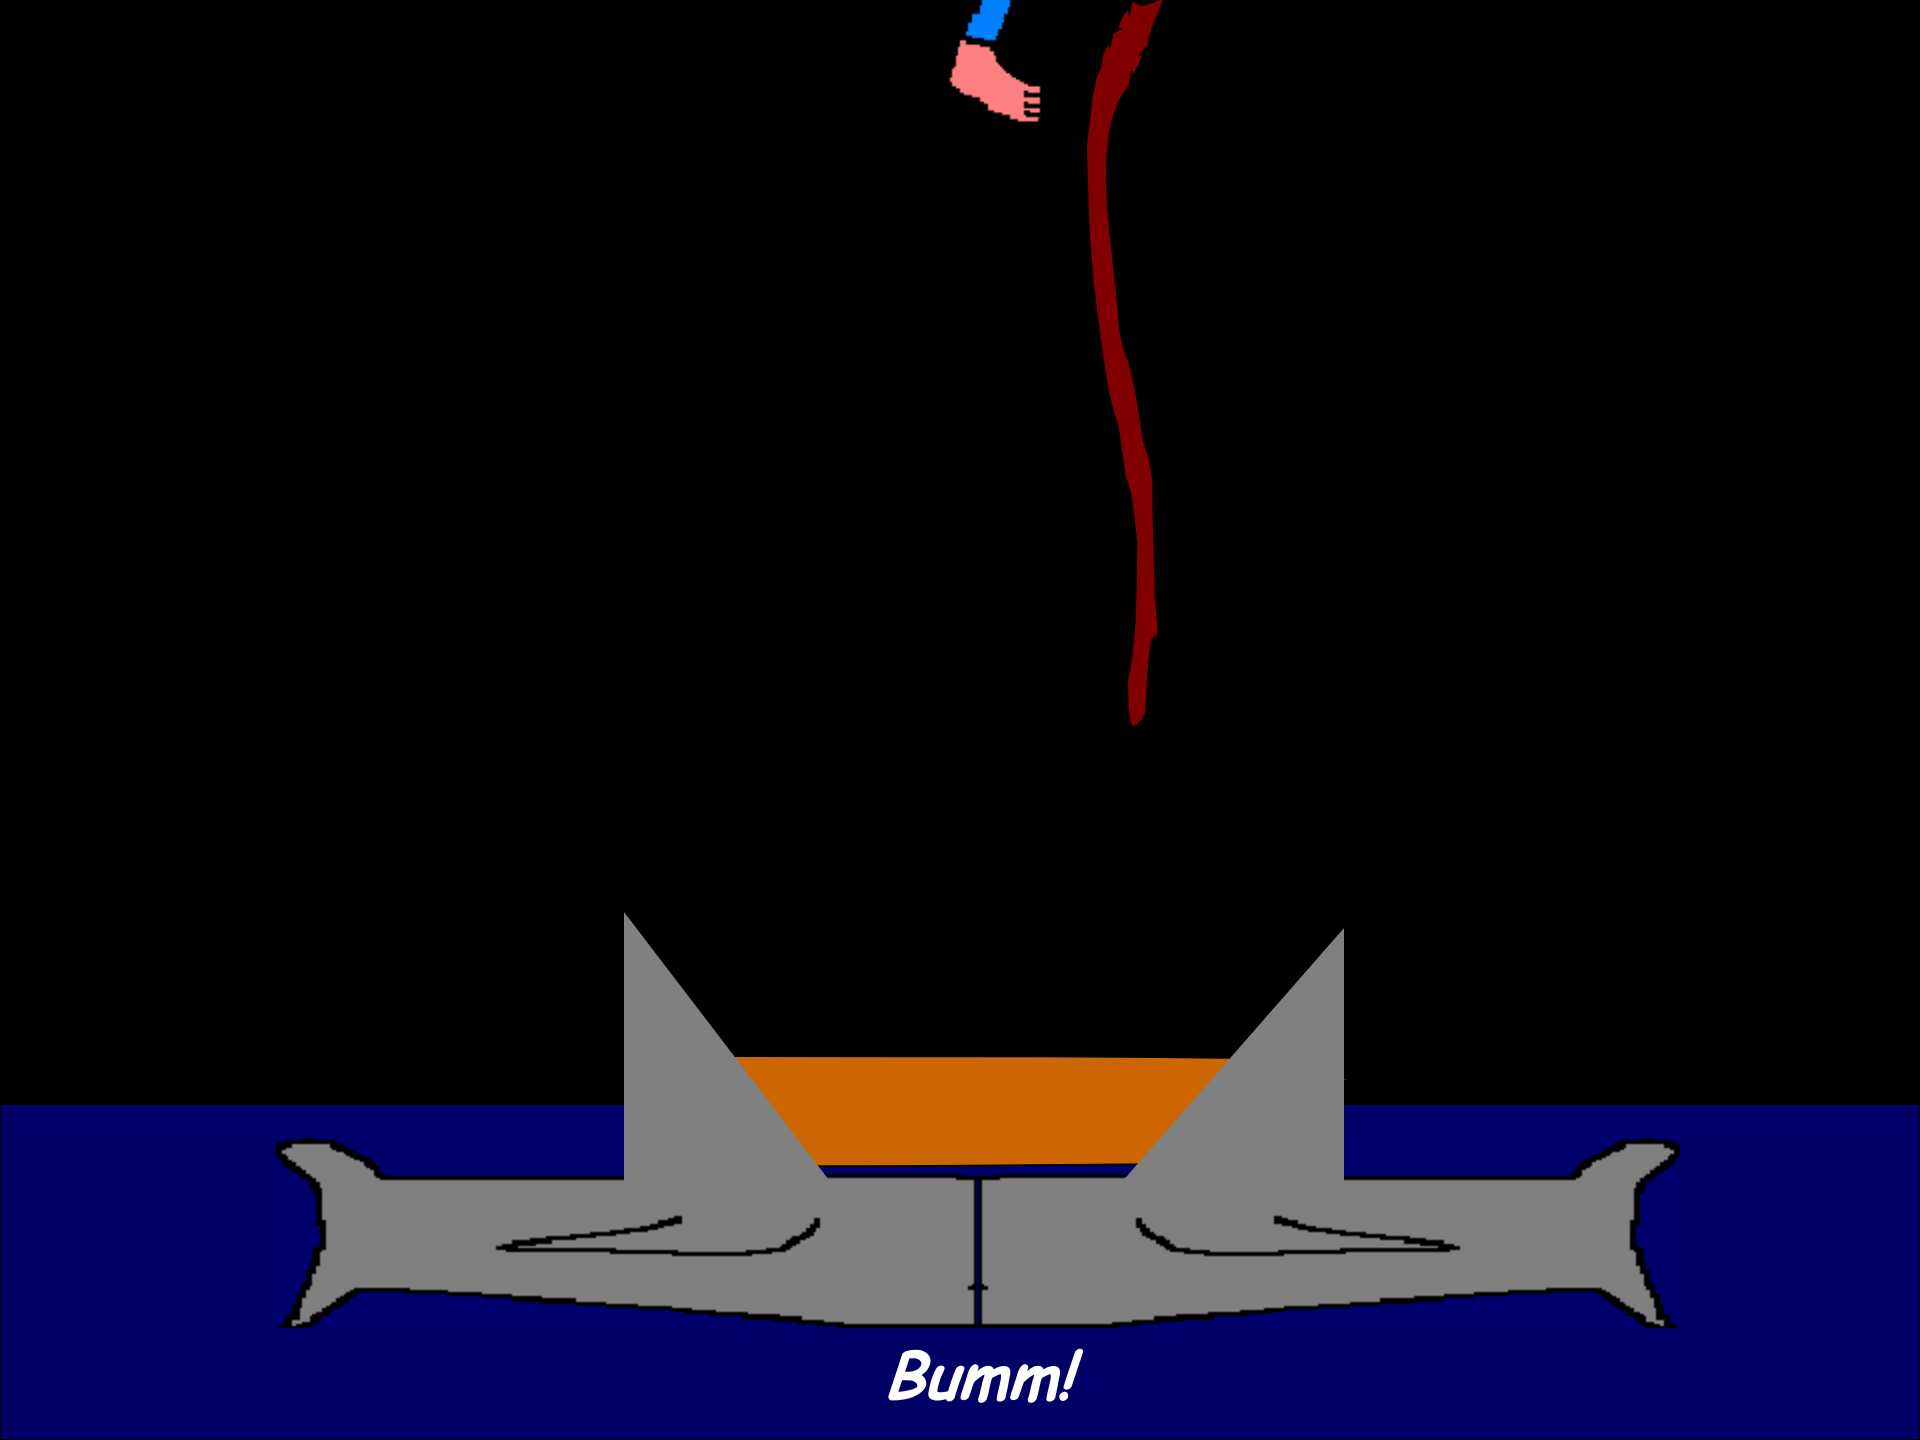

A cartoon illustration of a shark with a speech bubble. The shark is pink with a white eye and yellow teeth. It is positioned in the center of the frame, with a blue body and a white head. A speech bubble above it contains the text 'Haie!!!'. The background is black, and the foreground is blue. Two grey triangles are positioned on either side of the shark, pointing towards it. The shark is partially submerged in the blue water, with an orange shape representing its body or a platform it is on.
